- The festival reserves the right to reject any application for vendor space or any item listed on a vendor application which is deemed unsafe (e.g. air soft guns or any other item which releases a projectile) or which is considered inappropriate for family viewing. The Texas Mushroom Festival reserves the right to inspect booths at any time during the festival to insure compliance. Security personnel will be on site to enforce this policy.
- Booths must be maintained in a neat, clean condition; and vendors are responsible for cleaning their area at the end of the day. The Festival holds the irrevocable right to assign spaces.
- If your organization is exempt from sales tax liability, you must provide appropriate documentation. All others must have a Texas Sales and Use Tax Permit and display it or have it available in your booth. A compliance visit from the State Comptroller's Office can be expected during the day. You are solely responsible for the reporting and payment of all sales/use tax applicable to your sales.
- Submission of an application does not guarantee acceptance or placement. Festival officials reserve the right to select or reject vendors.
- This is an outdoor event, and there are no refunds for inclement weather.
- All food vendors must present a State of Texas Health Permit or the Madison County Temporary Food Establishment Permit (payable to Madison County). Call (936) 348-3810 to apply for the Madison Co. Permit.
- Set up may begin on October 17 as early as you feel necessary. Festival staff will be on site beginning at 5:00 a.m. All support vehicles must be removed from the vendor area by 9:00 a.m., and booths must be ready for business at 10:00 a.m. Booth break down may not begin until after the close of the festival (5:00 p.m.) No vehicular traffic will be permitted on festival grounds between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.
- A parking permit will be issued to vendors who are accepted to the festival.
- Cancellations after September 1, 2009 will not be due a refund.

I, by my signature below, do indemnify and forever hold the Texas Mushroom Festival, its officers, directors, agents and members, City of Madisonville, Madison County, or Madisonville Downtown Area Merchants Association blameless from any failure to comply with the reporting of the taxes, nor any liability for any accident or any other problems that we cannot control. I have read and will abide by the conditions set forth in this contract.
