Texas Mushroom Festival Mission Statement

The mission of the Texas Mushroom Festival is to make a major contribution to the ever improving quality of life in the City of Madisonville by providing its citizens with a significant and continuing source of community pride, a citywide celebration by and for every citizen and a means of promoting the benefits of a common bond between the people, businesses, government, education and civic organizations which make up our community.

The Mushroom Festival will strive to continually increase its draw as a regional tourism magnet, growing stronger in appeal-power every year, presenting an opportunity to showcase our city's hospitality, and ultimately impacting the economic growth of Madisonville.

GOALS:

Provide a unique cultural and educational experience for Texans.

Expand tourism and create opportunities for local organizations and businesses to showcase their products and services.

To establish and maintain an administrative committee to achieve the purposes outlined in the mission statement.

To promote agricultural, culinary, and fine arts in East Texas.

To provide opportunities for local organizations to raise revenue and give volunteers a sense of community pride.

To provide fun activities and opportunities which have a broad appeal to East Texans.

Strategic Goal:

To be recognized as one of the top festivals in the great state of Texas!

2010 Sponsorship Invitation

The 2010 Texas Mushroom Festival Committee seeks your generous support. Help us continue to present one of the finest culinary and wine events of the year. Now is the time to stake your claim to some of the fame!

Have you saved the dates?

Friday, October 22nd is the Gala Dinner and Auction featuring a gourmet menu and four of the best wines from Texas. Saturday, October 23rd is the ninth Texas Mushroom Festival and Dance.

Here's the Big Picture:

- Our Gala Reception & Dinner prepared by the chefs of the Brazos Valley Chefs Association includes live entertainment and the best auction of the year.
- Start the day with the Shiitake 5K Run.
- Monterey Mushrooms, Inc. will be grilling their famously delicious portabella fajitas and showing everyone how they are grown.
- Vineyards from across Texas will be offering their wines while chefs create dishes featuring our famous native Monterey mushrooms.
- The Downtown Merchants fill the Square and beyond with Arts & Crafts Vendors and food providers.
- The Auto Showcase expands to include exhibits by area farm and ranch dealers.
- Madison County Arts Council hosts their annual photography contest.
- The Mushroom Queen and her court preside over the entire event.

All events are subject to change.
